WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

Please join us in warmly welcoming Yossi & Shira Teichman to our shul and community! Yossi and Shira Teichman recently moved to Highland Park from Los Angeles, where they lived for nearly a decade. They immediately became new members at OT.

Vossi, originally from LA, spent many years learning in Israel during high school and beyond. He is a software engineer and a mathematician, with experience in a great variety of fields. Yossi enjoys exploring both ideas and the outdoors-he's the type to identify rare birds from a car window. find edible wild berries on a hike, or navigate a hiking trail for miles. His interests are broad, and include biographies of Gedolim, physics, Parsha, sti-fi, AI technology, Jewish history, and more.

Shira is originally from New York and holds a Masters in Teaching. She has a background in writing and coaching, and she speaks fluent Italian-which came in handy when they once hosted an Italian guest for Shabbos. She has a dry sense of humor and a thoughtful welcoming presence.

Together, Yossi and Shira have a deep appreciation for Jews from all backgrounds, and they love hosting guests for Shabbos and Yom Tov. They look forward to doing so often in Highland Park, IY"O.

They have three daughters: Tzippy (6) - homeschooled, Elisheva (4) - who attends Netivot, and Avigall (2) -who also attends Netivot. All three girls are excited to make new friends-so if you see them around, don't be shy (they aren't!)
