GEMARA AVODAH ZARAH SHIUR

Many are familiar with the "three cardinal sins" that one must avoid at all costs—even under the threat of death. But would you be surprised to learn that according to no less an authority than Rebbe Yishmael, one should even commit avodah zarah—idol worship—in order to save one's life? Could that really be? And would he say the same about the other two "cardinal sins"? Join our Gemara Shiur this Shabbos to find out!

PRE-SELICHOS SHIUR

Everyone is invited to join us for an inspiring Rabbi Dr. Israel Rivkin zt"l memorial pre-Selichos shiur this Motzaei Shabbos, Sept 13th, at 12AM delivered by Rabbi Eliyahu Wolf. The shiur, "Selichos – a Compelling Culmination and Commencement", will begin at 12:00am in the main shul, and will be followed by Selichos at 12:53AM led by our Chazan, Yitz Henkin.

Rabbi Eliyahu Wolf, a Musmach of RIETS, talmid of Yeshiva Shaar Hatorah and Yeshivas Mir, earned his BA from Queens

College and ma from Touro University. A passionate torah teacher and amateur guitarist, he serves as the assistant rabbi at the Young Israel of Woodmere and a rebbe at the DRS yeshiva high school in Woodmere, where he resides with his wife Adina and their family. Prior to teaching at DRS, Rabbi Wolf and Rabbi Malitzky were colleagues at TABC

He has semichah from Rav Zalman Nechemia Goldberg, and he is a Dayan with Bais Din Maysharim and Bais HaVaad / The Halacha Center. Rabbi Grossman has lectured on many topics in Jewish law before a variety of audiences, and he has made several CLE presentations to legal professionals. ### WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

Aharon and Karen Shapiro have been proud members of the Edison community for nearly 20 years and have recently joined Congregation Ohr Torah. Aharon grew up in Brooklyn and works as an actuary. Karen, originally from Oceanside, Long Island, works with preschool children, bringing her signature warmth and care to the youngest learners. Their shared story began in Israel during the 1996 Yankees World Series run, when Aharon spotted a girl wearing a Yankees hat and he wisely proceeded to ask her for the score. Nearly 29 years later, they're still cheering for the Yankees— together. They are the proud parents of four: Dina (Mallock), 24, married to Dovid and pursuing a Doctorate in Occupational Therapy through YU's Sarah Schneider program; Yitzchok, 21, currently in YU; Joshua, 14, a student at JEC; and Max, 11, who attends RPRY.

RABBI'S TZEDAKA FUND – YOMIM NORAIM APPEAL

19 is a scary number.

19 is the number of Shabbos and Yom Tov meals a family must prepare (and eat!)

from Rosh Hashanah until the end of Sukkos. While this may cause anxiety for those cooking the meals or for those worried about overeating, the pressure it places on members of our community who are struggling financially is far greater and far more painful.

There are families in our shul and community who rely on YOU in order to get through Yom Tov. Many have children who need shoes and clothing as well. And of course, all this comes on top of their ongoing, day-to-day struggles that don't pause for Yom Tov.

I am asking you to partner with me in helping these families. Every single dollar goes directly to provide them with what they need.

In just two weeks we will stand together in shul and cry out:

ותשובה ותפילה וצדקה מעבירין את רוע הגזירה— Repentance, prayer, and charity remove the severity of the decree.

Let us not only recite the words — let us live them.

Let us come together as a community and ensure that every member can enter Yom Tov with what they need — with dignity, peace of mind, and true simcha.

In this merit, may Hashem shower you and your family with endless bracha, abundant parnassah, good health, and a שנה טובה ומתוקה.
